

Volunteer role profile

Role:	Future Leaders Community Committee Member
Directorate:	Professional Services

Volunteers are crucial to our work. We can't achieve our vision of a safe and healthy world of work without your help, knowledge, and expertise.

Role overview

A Committee Member contributes their expertise, perspectives, and time to help the committee achieve its aims effectively, which are aligned with the IOSH Strategy and Charitable Objects.

The committee is a group of up to 13 volunteers, fostering collaboration, encouraging the sharing of ideas, and supporting the delivery of initiatives that benefit those who are new and developing in the OSH profession.

The committee's primary purpose will be to deliver a programme of continuing professional development (CPD) events and activities to add value to IOSH Future Leaders Community, contribute to membership growth and advocate for the profession as a career.

Role responsibilities

Participation and engagement

- Actively attend meetings to collaborate and contribute to discussions with informed, constructive input.
- Review agendas, relevant documents, and communications in advance of meetings.
- Share creative ideas, challenges, and aspirations relating to the Future Leaders Community.
- Participate in the delivery of content, such as webinars, podcasts, panel discussions, presentations, and blogs.
- Champion occupational safety and health as an attractive first-choice career.

Communication

- Reply to emails and requests within agreed timelines.
- Support agreed decisions and assist in their implementation, actively taking on tasks and ensuring actions are followed up.
- Provide progress updates to keep the committee informed.

Support Committee effectiveness

- Ensure activities are undertaken in accordance with organisational guidelines and policies.
- Bring new ideas or resources that could help achieve the committee's aims.

Person requirements

- Member of the IOSH Future Leaders Community.
- Meet requirements within the Committee appointment process for the role.
- Continue with professional development (CPD) according to the requirements of your grade.
- Able to collaborate and communicate effectively.
- Able to use technology and common software. For example: Microsoft Teams, Zoom, Outlook.

Commitment

We hope you can stay for a term of 18 months in this role to get the most out of the experience.

- Time commitment is approximate to one to three hours per month depending on frequency of committee meetings in addition to events/ activities planned. Allowing time for meeting preparation and undertaking tasks or activities.
- Committee meetings and events may be a mixture of both in-person and virtual.

Our shared values

We've created a set of values to inspire and unite the OSH profession.

- Act with integrity - we stay true to our beliefs, our dedication to workers' safety and our commitment to continuously champion workers' safety and health.
- Always be inclusive - we champion a world of work where everyone can be their authentic self and are utterly committed to protecting the right for everyone to feel safe and empowered in the world of work.
- Together we innovate - we empower organisations to face an ever-changing and pressurised world through collaboration and communication. We're committed to developing successful solutions that are dynamic and innovative.

What's in it for you

- Make a real difference – help to support and develop new and emerging OSH professionals worldwide.
- Enhance your continuing professional development (CPD) – keep your professional development moving forward.
- Expand your network – connect with OSH professionals from around the globe.
- Personal growth - strengthen your leadership skills, feel valued and part of a team.

Our responsibilities

- Meet our legal duty of care to you as a volunteer.
- Provide an informal induction into your role.
- Reimburse out-of-pocket expenses in line with the appropriate business rule.
- Consult with you about changes that affect your volunteering.
- Treat you with respect, and in accordance with our equality and diversity policy.
- Respond to your queries or concerns as quickly as we can.

The Institution of Occupational Safety and Health (IOSH) is the world's largest professional body for safety and health, and the only one with Chartered status.

We've been around since 1945, and today we're a registered charity with international NGO status. That means we're in a unique position to lead the way: shaping policy, championing positive change, and standing up for everyone's right to a safe and healthy workplace.

With a global community of 50,000 members, spread across 130 countries, together, we share one vision: a world where work is safe and healthy for all.

Through the work of our members, and our qualifications and training, we provide the skills, knowledge, and expertise needed to keep people and workplaces safe - and businesses and economies thriving.
