

Melaney Doyle - Chartered HR Director / Behaviour Expert

Melaney has 20 years' experience working in Leadership, Management and Team Development internationally and in the UK. Melaney focuses on developing sound leadership and learning culture based on best practice that enables innovation, growth and puts the HUMAN back in to Human Resources. She has an MSc in Occupational Psychology and is passionate about supporting safe workplaces with appropriate organisational design, job design, stress and wellbeing processes and training/development for managers and staff.

Her wider sector experience including Banking, Mining and Exploration, Manufacturing, Warehousing and Supply, Charities and Care. Currently she is involved as a Trustee for the Dove Service (Bereavement/Life Changing Loss) Charity based in Stoke.

HR 'Soft Skills' Tool Box Talks for IOSH, Staffordshire

These Tool Box Talks are designed to provide insight in to the following skill areas;

- 16th March 2017 - Managing Different Personalities in the Workplace – This interactive workshop will help you to develop emotional intelligence (self-awareness) and an understanding of how personality affects work style, motivators and stressors and impacts on work / team relationships and results.
- 20th April 2017 - Leadership Skills – Understand Leadership Style and Build Personal Influence.
- 18th May 2017 - Understand the difference between Leadership and Management – How good are your Leadership or Management Skills? (includes self-test).
- 15th June 2017 - Team Management Skills – Develop an understanding of how to communicate and delegate effectively, motivate and develop your team, and manage discipline.
- 20th July 2017 - Managing Performance – Giving Feedback.
- 17th August 2017 - Managing Stress – Take our Burnout Test.
- 21st September 2017 - Time Management – Beat Work Overload, Be More Effective, Achieve More.

Additional subjects to be added so please watch out for future workshops!.....

Melaney Doyle

Director
MPower People Development Ltd