Food and Drink Industries Group strategy

Goal	A safe and healthy world of work
Vision	A food and drink industry that is safe and healthy
Pillars	Enhance	Collaborate	Influence
Priorities	- Supporting the development of our members at all stages of their career - Meeting our members' needs - Attract new members globally	- Engaging with businesses, trade associations and IOSH networks - Supporting the Common Strategy agreed through the Food and Drink Manufacturing Forum.	- Promoting WORK 2022 and six priorities - Influencing the Food and Drink Manufacturing Forum - Promoting positive safety and health culture - Leading industry initiatives - Being an expert voice in the industry
Enablers	Engagement and communications
	3-year work plan
Measures of success	Enhance - Increase in new members year on year - Member survey - Providing CPD opportunities - Attract a student member to the committee - Grow social media presence	Collaborate - Running joint events and participating in industry initiatives - Support benchmarking industry performance	Influence - Organise the annual Conference and Awards on behalf of the Food and Drink Manufacturing Health and Safety Forum - Deliver a programme of network events/ webinars, projects and workshops - Support IOSH campaigns and initiatives - Peer review industry specific documentation - Submit articles to journals and publications

Food and Drink Industries Group strategy

Definitions

Goal	IOSH's goal describes the organisation's aim and purpose
Vision	This is the Food and Drink Industries Group's roadmap to the attainment of IOSH's goal
Pillars	Pillars provide the strategic framework for the attainment of the Group's vision
Priorities	Priorities are the key objectives within each of the three pillars that the group will focus upon to deliver the roadmap
Enablers	Enablers are tasks and activities that support the delivery of the key priorities
Measures of success	Measures of success are key performance indicators which allow the group to track tasks and activities, ensuring attainment of the Group's vision