

296th Meeting of the IOSH Thames Valley
Branch held on 18th November 2019 at the University of Reading

Members present: David Armstrong, Nick Bathurst, Paul Beaumont, Jane Brown, Vince Butler, Charlie Cribbes, Graham Dandridge, Sarah Dickson, Joe Fullbrook, Laura Graure, David Heath, Grahame Jamieson, Nick Marsh, Dean Middlemore, Brian Morley, Derek Page, Graham Parker, Tyrone Partridge, Mark Polley, Alan Poole, Jim Prowse, Gill Saunders, Chris Stops, Leeroy Thompson, Jen Toner, Marion Virgo, Chris Williamson Tom Wilson.

Visitors : Ryan Binnee, Shelly Dawett (Shirley Parsons)

Apologies for absence: Steve Pulling, Steve Turner.

Branch matters.

A member asked if there was any legislation about the time between land occupied by animals and then occupied by people at events (in relation to contamination by animal waste). Another member who regularly organises agricultural events said the minimum time is 28 days.

Topic for the evening: Modern Day Slavery. Speaker : April McCoig - Thames Valley Police

Her slides are under 'recent events' on the Thames Valley branch microsite.

Forthcoming meetings : 9th December - Christmas supper and Quiz

Reply to: David Heath, Branch Secretary
Heath410@btinternet.com Tel: 01628 634523