COVID-19

- Many UK manufacturing sites have temporarily closed
- On the 11th of May, UK Government released eight guides aimed at helping workplaces operate safely during coronavirus (COVID-19)
- The overriding message is for workers to return to work if they can't work from home, but only if they can do so safely
- Specific guides available on Factories, plants, warehouses & Vehicles
- As ever, the duty is on the employer to ensure the workplace is safe.
