James (Jimmy) Quinn the current IOSH President gave a short talk on his vision for IOSH and asked what he can do for members going forward. In particular he is looking to give out as many Presidents Distinguished Service Awards as possible and if you have any nominations or any other ideas to enhance members standing and help for branches he can be contacted at James.quinn@IOSH.com

Branch matters

Members are reminded that any member suffering hardship can apply for financial support from the IOSH benevolent fund.

Branch presentation

Vince Donovan director of Safety Solutions training Ltd gave a zoom presentation on Lone worker safety and violence/aggression
